PTA Votes $3.00 Attendance Prize

The Appomattox Elementary School voted Thursday night to award $3 to the room with the most patrons present at a PTA meeting.

These awards will be given for the next six PTA meetings, Mrs. Martin Webb, president, said. The notion was made by G. A. Pitsenberger in an effort to promote attendance by parents and interested persons to PTA meetings.

The prize money can be used for a party, a clock, or piece of equipment or anything else the room decides on, Pitsenberger said.

About 400 persons turned out to hear historian Wescoat Wolfe talk on Francis Scott Key, the War of 1812, and the writing of the Star Spangled Banner.

DAR Announces Local Winners

Four county winners were announced in the just completed History Essay Contest. Mrs. Charles Crawley said that these four history essays will be entered in the state contest, and state winners will compete in the National contest.

"An Historic Event in My State" was the general subject. Winners were Wilson Harvey, 9th grade, Pamplin Elementary; Johnny Redding, 6th grade and Linda Grinels, 7th grade, Appomattox Elementary School and Nona Massey, of Pamplin, and an 8th grader at Appomattox High School.

The contest which closed February 11th is part of the DAR celebration of American History Mouth.

Farmers' Club Hears Talk On Wood Profits

The difference between a "good way" and a "better way" to produce pulpwood was explained by Carroll Mays, of West Va. Pulp and Paper Co. Thursday night, Feb. 21, at a meeting of the Adult Farmers' Club of Pamplin.

Farmers' profit, using one method, may bring him $9,000, Mays said. With the better method, profits may be almost twice that, or $17,000 on a given stand of timber. Kelly's Wood Yard, with two locations near Appomattox County, is a buyer for West Va. Pulp and Paper.

Four kinds of sport—all super

Want to make spring come in a hurry? Then pick a new car with whatever you prefer for in performance and sporty trimmings—like bucket seats, 4-speed shift*, lots of horses—and start driving it now. Chevy's got a lot of sport in four entirely different kinds of cars.

First, the Jet-smooth Impala Super Sport with your choice of 7 different engines that range up to 425 hp and that include the popular Turbo-Fire 409* with a big hp for the ultimate in smooth, responsive driving in modern traffic. Optional equipment, including Comfortlift steering wheel* that adjusts for your convenience, makes it super a sport as you'd like.

SUPER SPORT SS

There's the Chevy II Nova, also available in an SS version. Special instrument cluster. Front buckets. All-vinyl trim. Distinctive SS identification. Fourteen-inch wheels and tires* with full wheel disks. Three-speed shift or Powerglide* with floor-mounted shift console.

Or the Corvair Monza Spyder with complete instrumentation, special identification, and an air-cooled Turbocharged Six.

And for a real wallop, see the stunning Corvette Sting Ray, winner of the "Car Life" 1963 Award for Engineering Excellence.

All told, four beautiful convertibles, four handsome coupes. You'll get a four-barrel kick just looking them over—and a whole lot more fun out of driving one!

*Optional at extra cost.

Top—Corvette Sting Ray Sport Coupe and Corvair Monza Spyder Club Coupe. Below—left, Chevrolet Impala SS Convertible; right, Chevy II Nova 400 SS Convertible. (All four available in both convertible and coupe models. Super Sport and Spyder equipment optional at extra cost.)
